SWCD Welcomes New Face

Monroe SWCD wants to welcome the new Wildlife and Forestry Specialist, Dave Schott. Dave is a 1994 graduate from Hocking College with an Associate's Degree of Applied Science in Forestry. Dave has been employed with SWCD for 11 years. He started with Belmont/ Guernsey SWCD in 1998 as Wildlife Specialist. In 1999, Dave went to Guernsey County full-time as Wildlife Specialist/ Forest Technician. He replaces Chad Hammond who was with Monroe SWCD since 2003. Dave's duties will include writing forest management plans, CAUV inspections, delivering the SWCD rental equipment, investigating crop damage done by wildlife, give recommendations of non-lethal and lethal methods of controlling wildlife, and issuing deer damage control permits. Schott will also be providing people with technical assistance on managing their woodlands for timber production and wildlife.

Dave and his wife Jodi reside in Noble County on their 70 acre farm with their two children Sami (14) and Hunter (4). Dave and his family raise Boer cross goats, cheviot sheep, pumpkins, Indian corn, and gourds. Dave said: "I am very excited and look forward to serve the people in Monroe County with all of their agriculture and natural resource needs."
